THE CANADIAN MAIL.

The following telegrams are from Vancouver papers bought on by the Canadian Pacific steamer Perthshire:

RUSSIA AND GERMANY.

LONDON, 21st June. The Czar of Russia refuses to accept his portion of the estate of his deceased uncle, Prince Wittgenstein. The decision of the Czar causes irritation in Berlin, for although Philip has become a Russian by birth, he is son of Prince Hohenlohe, German Governor of Alsace and Lorraine, and the Czar's action is felt to be a blow aimed at German and Germans, more especially as the claim of the young Prince was vigorously supported by Bismarck.

COLONIZATION.

LONDON, 21st June. The House of Commons Committee met for the first time to consider the bill introduced by the local board presiding, Mr. Chadrach Patric. Under Scotch Secretary, expressed himself satisfied with the progress of emigration of Crofters to the North West. He also gave an extension of the limit of the mortgage on houses beyond £600, as this was not sufficient to enable emigrant to settle, or at least the general emigrant. Sir Charles Tupper will shortly be examined and stress will probably be laid on this proposal to extend the 600 limit.

MRS. HAYES PARALYZED.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, 21st June. A special train for Fremont, Ohio, states that Mrs. Hayes, wife of General Hayes, this afternoon was stricken with paralysis. Her entire right side was affected, and it is believed she had not recovered her consciousness.

FREMONT, OHIO, 21st June.

The condition of Mrs. Hayes, wife of the ex-President, shows no improvement to-day and no hope is entertained of her recovery.

IMPERIAL FEDERATION.

LONDON, 22nd June. Sir Charles Tupper made an impromptu speech at the annual dinner of the Imperial Federation League to-night. He congratulated the League on the progress of the movement in Canada, though himself unable to join some of the Federalists in believing the Empire must fall unless it made a radical change in the constitution of the Empire. The movement had not yet been born in Canada, because, perhaps, no colony needs look so far to loyalty to the Empire; also because the French Canadian population desired nothing better than the independence. Still, if the movement should take a practical turn let the British Government and the Imperial League, and summon an Imperial Conference to London to consider the whole question, especially on the basis of self-interest to each part of the Empire. He believed such a convention would have a practical outcome, and would lead to the adoption of a federal policy, which would add strength and unity to the Empire.

THE SPEAKER WAS MUCH OBSCURED.

Lord Harcourt, though a conference would be premature, argued, that the Dominion Government to take the initiative with the other colonies.

LONDON, 23rd June.

Sir Charles Tupper's suggestion for an Imperial convention to discuss measures to secure closer Imperial unity, especially closer fiscal relations, is warmly applauded in many circles. There is general talk of a delegation to the Ministry. Sir Charles' idea is that British statesmen of all shades of opinion should combine to invite colonial delegates. He expressed the firm conviction that the result would greatly tend to promote the welfare of the Canadian South Federations, like Lord Lansdowne, say, however, that colonial and imperial opinion is hardly ripe for any elaborate scheme.

THE "VALKYRIE" DEFEATED.

LONDON, 24th June. The Valkyrie was defeated to-day by the Ferme, Derhout, and Irene.

THE AMERICA CUP.

LONDON, 25th June. The yacht squadron at the meeting in London yesterday resolved that it was impossible to accept the proposed new deed of the gift of the America's cup.

MILITARY SITUATION.

LONDON, 24th June. The Salvation Army quartered in London was called upon for active service in the field to-day to raise an onslaught of London. The Salvationists fought bravely, but the little band was soon overpowered, their musical instruments and their flags were smashed and lay along the street and the most pugnacious of their number fell by the look-up. The police had notified the Salvationists that they would not be permitted to obstruct the streets, but this only served to heighten the anger of the Army, and this evening at 8 o'clock, and banner they hurled defiance at the onlookers and marched down the Strand as usual in the direction of Exeter Hall, their accustomed meeting place, where they had proceeded but a short distance to the Strand when the police attacked and routed them. Many were ignominiously dragged off to prison, where they will have to spend the night, and will be compelled to find hours for their good behaviour before being released.

THE TAINT MEMBERS.

LONDON, 24th June. In a small pamphlet just printed by order of the House of Commons, it is recorded the record of convictions of members of parliament for offences against the state, showing that during the last year, Irish members have been sentenced to terms of imprisonment, and foreign offenders nearly seven years. Twenty-four persons have been convicted and one English member, Captain Bear, has a sentence hanging over him. Cox and Finucane sustained no less than five prosecutions though their sentences aggregated only five and nine months respectively. Mr. Condon is undergoing his fourth incarceration, having altogether been sentenced to eight months imprisonment. Edward Harrington has to complete a term of six months, and another of one month, and Patrick O'Brien's convictions have shut him up for seven months. Mr. O'Brien has received sentences aggregating 16 months; Sheahan 10 months.

LODGE SALTHERY OF THE MUSKRAT SITUATION.

LONDON, 24th June. In the House of Lords to-day the prospects of a European war were fully discussed and the attention of the Government was directed to the serious danger to England which would result if the annexation of the island of Crete were accomplished by one of the powers as is reported to be in contemplation. Lord Salttheray stated that the Government was not unmindful of the possibility that might be the outcome of the present state of the continental Europe, but he assured their Lordships that the report that any of the great powers were now contemplating the annexation of Crete was unfounded.

AUSTRIAN AFFAIRS.

LONDON, 23rd June. The speech of the Emperor Francis Joseph at the opening of the session of Deputies yesterday was devoted largely to the foreign relations of the Empire. The general foreign policy of the Emperor was remained unchanged and there was no accord between Austria and her allies. The Emperor is doing his utmost to bring about a peaceable solution of the present European situation, which still remains unsafe. The Emperor hoped that the blessings of peace might be maintained. King Milan of Servia in giving full power to a regency during the minority of King Alexander, had a friendly relation with the Empire should be maintained.

The Emperor continued: "My wish is that relations between the two countries should remain friendly, and I hope that the wisdom and rectitude of the Servians will protect Servia from serious dangers." The Emperor hoped that the peace of Europe might be maintained.

THE EMPEROR'S ADDRESS TO THE SHAB.

LONDON, 23rd June. The town of Paderborn, in the department of Minden, is flooded by an overflow of the river, and the country in the vicinity is devastated. Houses have been washed away, and trees and crops are ruined.

Meyer, the Paris financier, has been sentenced to a year's imprisonment and a fine of £200 for complicity in the Societe des Bourses frauds.

VIENNA, 21st June.

A serious riot, the outcome of strikes in the region, occurred at Berlin, Bohemia. The strikers defied the gendarmes, and the latter were compelled to fire several volleys, wounding two miners who were killed; two were wounded. Fire-fighters feared, and three battalions of infantry have been sent to the scene.

LONDON, 21st June.

The Sunday School Convention opened in Exeter Hall on July 1st, and the meeting was held in religious circles. Canada, America, France, and Australia were represented.

Sir Roger Lethbridge has resigned his seat for North Kensington.

LONDON, 21st June.

Mr. Howard, connected recently with the Royal Sugar Refining Co., has been sentenced to 2 years and 7 months' imprisonment in the state prison.

GORDON, 21st June.

Locarno, the British spy, who testified against

Parcell before the Parnell Commission, was tried last night by his comrades of Winifred S. Hancock, Post No. 560, Grand Army of the Republic, and summarily dismissed from the G.A.R.

The charges against him were that he was unworthy of the confidence of the other members. The trial was held by his testimony given in the Parnell case.

DEATH OF AN M.P.

LONDON, 21st June. The death is announced of Major Alexander Dickson, Conservative member for Dover.

GERMANY AND SWITZERLAND.

BERLIN, 21st June. Germany has given notice to Switzerland to terminate the settlement of the treaty of 1876.

ARMENIANS ARRESTED FOR TREASON.

BERKHAMSTED, 21st June. Several Armenians have been arrested here on suspicion of plotting against the Government.

shipmate, who ran towards him. His body was not recovered.

PAMPS, 23rd June. A pitched battle was fought to-day at Pamps, between the party of the Bourguignons and the party of the Government.

The civil parties are in the course of a long contesting a truce.

M. Desvergne, Bourguignon Deputy, was slighted by the police as the result of the arrests of Angoulême, of the Charente, and Langres, and the Czar's action is felt to be a blow aimed at German and Germans, more especially as the claim of the young Prince was vigorously supported by Bismarck.

COLONIZATION.

LONDON, 21st June. The House of Commons Committee met for the first time to consider the bill introduced by the local board presiding, Mr. Chadrach Patric. Under Scotch Secretary, expressed himself satisfied with the progress of emigration of Crofters to the North West.

CLEVELAND, OHIO, 21st June. A special train for Fremont, Ohio, states that Mrs. Hayes, wife of General Hayes, this afternoon was stricken with paralysis. Her entire right side was affected, and it is believed she had not recovered her consciousness.

FREMONT, OHIO, 21st June.

The condition of Mrs. Hayes, wife of the ex-President, shows no improvement to-day and no hope is entertained of her recovery.

IMPERIAL FEDERATION.

LONDON, 22nd June. Sir Charles Tupper made an impromptu speech at the annual dinner of the Imperial Federation League to-night. He congratulated the League on the progress of the movement in Canada, though himself unable to join some of the Federalists in believing the Empire must fall unless it made a radical change in the constitution of the Empire.

The movement had not yet been born in Canada, because, perhaps, no colony needs look so far to loyalty to the Empire; also because the French Canadian population desired nothing better than the independence of the Empire.

In addition to this the Czar's action is felt to be a blow aimed at German and Germans, more especially as the claim of the young Prince was vigorously supported by Bismarck.

COLONIZATION.

LONDON, 23rd June. The House of Commons Committee met for the first time to consider the bill introduced by the local board presiding, Mr. Chadrach Patric. Under Scotch Secretary, expressed himself satisfied with the progress of emigration of Crofters to the North West.

He also gave an extension of the limit of the mortgage on houses beyond £600, as this was not sufficient to enable emigrants to settle, or at least the general emigrant.

Sir Charles Tupper will shortly be examined and stress will probably be laid on this proposal to extend the 600 limit.
